DETAILED ACTION

The applicants' response under 37 CFR 1.116 in reply to the final rejection along, filed on 12/21/2006, has been considered and the 112 rejection made in the previous office action has been obviated. However, upon further consideration, the Finality of the office action is withdrawn to apply the following rejection.

Claims 13-16, 20, 23, 26-30, 33, 36-38, 42 and 52 are pending.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

The factual inquiries set forth in Graham v. John Deere Co., 383 U.S. 1, 148 USPQ 459 (1966), that are applied for establishing a background for determining obviousness under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) are summarized as follows:

1. Determining the scope and contents of the prior art.
2. Ascertaining the differences between the prior art and the claims at issue.
3. Resolving the level of ordinary skill in the pertinent art.
4. Considering objective evidence present in the application indicating obviousness or nonobviousness.

This application currently names joint inventors. In considering patentability of the claims under 35 U.S.C. 103(a), the examiner presumes that the subject matter of the various claims was commonly owned at the time any inventions covered therein were made absent any evidence to the contrary. Applicant is advised of the obligation under 37 CFR 1.56 to point out the inventor and invention dates of each claim that was not commonly owned at the time a later invention was made in order for the examiner to consider the applicability of 35 U.S.C. 103(c) and potential 35 U.S.C. 102(e), (f) or (g) prior art under 35 U.S.C. 103(a).

Claim 23 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Desiraju et al. et al. Indian Journal of Chemistry. 27B(10): 953-954, 1988. CAPLUS Abstract provided earlier.

See compound shown on page 17 of CAPLUS Abstract.

Thus, it would be obvious to one trained in the art to make pharmaceutical composition of the said compound.

Claim 23 is rejected 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Katritzky et al. Journal of Heterocyclic Chemistry 25(5), 1321-1325. CAPLUS Abstract provided earlier.

See compounds shown in pages 18-19 of CAPLUS Abstract.

Thus, it would be obvious to one trained in the art to make pharmaceutical composition of the said compounds.

Efforts were made to contact counselor Ryan Cagle to resolve the issue by examiner's amendment. However, counselor was not available and due to time constrain, this office action is made.
